Daily Astorian — Michael Ziegler

A gift for the museum

Candelabra and a communion set belonging to Alma Nyland Jansen's late husband, Pastor Theodore Jansen, now rest in the Clatsop County Historical Museum in Astoria. Her husband received the items as a gift from Asmus and Christina Brix to use in his first church, the American Evangelical Lutheran Memorial Church of Astoria. Nyland family members, including Carlotta Nyland Strandberg, Astoria, worked together to make possible a presentation of the gift to the Astoria museum. Mae Miller (left) accepted the gift for the museum and examines the items with Mary Nyland, who represented the Nyland family in the presentation.
